

“I believe in being prepared physically, mentally, and morally to fight when necessary for that which is right.”

The Lone Ranger Creed

Crusader or criminal?

Invitation

MONASH University
Law

Annual Costello Lecture

presented by the Monash Law Alumni

---

Is there room for principles in our judicial system?

Professor Arie Freiberg, Dean, Monash Law School and Reverend Tim Costello, CEO, World Vision Australia

invite you to attend the Costello Lecture, an annual address devoted to the issues of ethics and social justice.

In this 40th year of the Monash Law School we are honoured to have Father Nic Frances as our speaker. The dynamic and passionate former CEO of the Brotherhood of St Laurence will ask some challenging questions about the quality of mercy and the struggle between 'what is legal' and 'what is just'.

When

Thursday 18 March 2004

5.30 pm registration

6–7 pm lecture

7 pm light refreshments will be served

Where

County Court

Level 1 Public Hall

Corner of William and Lonsdale Streets

Melbourne

RSVP

Due to limited space and security restrictions

RSVP is essential. Please contact

Sam Hawkins on (03) 9905 2326 or email sam.hawkins@law.monash.edu.au